

Activity Report

Name of Event: International Women's Day Celebration

Date: 12th March, 2020 Venue of Event: TCC Seminar Hall, GNDEC, Ludhiana

Event Content and Expected Benefits Derived and how it will helpful to the college

International women's day has been celebrated highlighting the theme #EachforEqual at Guru Nanak Dev Engineering College, Ludhiana. In the guidance of principal Dr. Sehijpal Singh the seminar has been conducted in which experts have participated. Dr. Neelam Sodhi being the main speaker. Dr. Sehijpal Singh has formally welcomed all the guests and participants. He said the message of equality has been encouraged by Guru Nanak Dev ji not only in Gurbani but he also proved it by setting great examples. He also discussed the equal rights of women employees of the college. Dr. Neelam Sodhi who is MD in Obs and Gynae by profession and social activist, she encouraged the women participants by putting light on famous ladies of the world in her lecture. She encouraged every women to outshine and prove the world that they too are equal. She also imparted awareness on health and work balance for women. At the end of the event, a question answer session was conducted in which participants were rewarded with exciting gifts. The some of the glimpses of the event are as follows:

Manpreet Kaur

Prabhjot Kaur

To