ACTIVITY REPORT

WORKSHOP ON LIBRARY AUTOMATION AND DIGITISATION

A National workhsop on Library Automation and Digitization was organised on 17.6.2019 to 21.6.2018 in University of Delhi South Campus.52 participants from all over India related to Library profession attended this workshop. Dr Tariq Ashraf , Librarian of University of Delhi South Campus welcomed to all the participants and gave detail of activities to be performed during this workshop.He gave Introduction about open source library software KOHA and Dspace . He explained features, advantages, development of koha and also explained about all modules of library software i.e. Admin, Acquisition, Circulation, Serial etc. He gave live demo of this Koha & Dspace software and also responded to many queries put by staff-members.

Technical professional from University campus gave practical training on Koha and Dspace software. They gave training how to install software, customize software and other features of software.

This programme was beneficiery for all the participants.

Harminder Singh
Library Assistant